

EMERGENCY PREPAREDNESS

be prepared to stay. be prepared to go.

There may be situations when it's simply best to stay where you are and avoid any uncertainty outside. Law enforcement or public officials will tell you when to stay.

Have a three-day supply of food and water for every member of your family, as well as first aid supplies, a flashlight, transistor radio and extra batteries.

There may be conditions under which you need to get away. Law enforcement or public officials will tell you when to go. Plan how you will assemble your family, and anticipate where you will go. Each family member should have a sturdy, easy-to-carry "go bag".
